

DERBY CITY DISCLOSURES

LOUISVILLE IIA CHAPTER

March, 2005

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members,

Thanks to Mike Cook who gave an interesting presentation on Privacy last month. Join us this month for Tim Snoddy's presentation on Forensic Accounting.

I am happy to announce that Dwayne Dowell will be serving as your 2005-2006 President! We are looking for a Vice-President for next year, so please let me know if you are interested. This position provides a great opportunity to serve your chapter and become more involved!

Congratulations to Judy Martin and William Corum for passing the November 2004 CIA Exam and to Todd Guelda for passing the CGAP Exam! The next exam CIA is May 18 and 19. The registration deadline is March 31. You can find more details at www.theiia.org.

Our chapter is joining efforts with the Central Kentucky chapter to offer a seminar on Interview and Interrogation Techniques. The seminar, presented by Walter Palmer, will be held March 7 in Frankfort. You must register by March 1 to attend this seminar. I have heard wonderful things about Walter Palmer...you don't want to miss this!

See you at the March meeting!

Heather DiEnno
Chapter President

About Tim . . .

Tim Snoddy is President of Snoddy Consulting, Inc., a specialized financial consulting firm providing services in forensic accounting, business valuation, litigation consulting and support, and other specialized financial consulting areas. Snoddy Consulting Inc. is based in Lexington, Kentucky with additional offices located in Asheville, North Carolina and Stuart, Florida.

Tim is a 1976 graduate of the University of Kentucky with a Bachelor of Science Degree and Accounting. He began his career on a traditional path as a staff auditor with a large regional accounting firm in Huntington, West Virginia, following that path through the various typical accounting firm levels primarily as an auditor and developing into consulting services. In 1987, he became managing partner of a firm in his hometown of Ashland, Kentucky. In January 1998, he opened Snoddy Consulting in Lexington in its present specialty practice form. Tim has been qualified as an expert witness in many jurisdictions including U.S. District Court and Courts in West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, and Florida. His professional credentials include:

- Certified Public Accountant (CPA) – Kentucky and Florida
- Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA)
- Diplomat of the American Board of Accountants (DABFA)

His professional memberships include:

- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- Kentucky Society of Certified Public Accountants
- Institute of Business Appraisers
- National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts
- American College of Forensic Examiners
- National Association of Forensic Economics
- Management Consulting Services Division of the American Institute of Certified Accountants
- International Academy of Collaborative Professionals.

PayPal is a quick and simple way to pay for monthly IIA meetings. From the chapter web site (www.iialou.org), go to the meeting and seminar schedule page. Click the “pay now” button for the meeting you wish to pay for. If you already have a “PayPal” account, simply verify the amount, enter your log-in and password. If you don't already have a "PayPal" account, you will need to fill in the information for new members (similar to other e-commerce web sites such as Amazon). Once you have completed the transaction, you will be sent an e-mail receipt by PayPal and be returned to the Louisville IIA web site. The local chapter also receives an e-mail that tells us you have paid. You will still need to contact Carrie Ramsey with your menu choice. All information is exchanged via HTTPS protocol (secure and encrypted) and remains with PayPal.

CISA REVIEW

Once again in 2005, the Kentuckiana ISACA Chapter will be conducting a CISA study review session in a weekend blitz on March 12-13. If you are planning to take the CISA exam and are interested in the study review, please contact Lisa Buckner at lisa.buckner@lgeenergy.com or (502) 627-3139. Registration materials and additional information can be obtained from Lisa, as well.

CISA EXAM

The Information Systems Audit and control Association's (ISACA) Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA) is one of the oldest (around since 1978), biggest (over 30,000 certified CISAs around the world), and best-known certifications around.

CISAs specialize in numerous topic areas related to systems audit and information security, including:

- The information systems audit process
- Management, planning and organization of information systems
- Analysis and review of technical infrastructure and operational practices
- Protection of information assets
- Disaster recovery and business continuity planning and implementation
- Development, acquisition, implementation and planning of business application systems
- Evaluation of business processes and risk management practices

ISACA will administer the 2005 CISA examination Saturday, June 11. Composed of 200 multiple-choice questions, the exam will be held in one four-hour session. The 2005 exam fee is $385 for members and $505 for nonmembers. A $50 discount is applied for registration by February 2. The registration deadline is March 30. All candidates can save $35 on the registration fee if they register for the exam online at www.isaca.org/examreg.

For more information on this program, plus pointers to information about requirements, training materials, practice exams, and more, please visit www.isaca.org/cisa.htm (the certification FAQ on the site is particularly helpful).
